Moscow Mule Copper Mugs

A Modern Missive for your Extraordinary Life

Greetings!

With heat waves rolling across the US (and the rest of the Northern Hemisphere!), we've got the inside scoop on the decorating trend that will raise the temperature inside your home! Metaphorically speaking, of course. Stick around for the experts' advice on using metals to supercharge your space.

MIX AND MATCH

Mixed metals are on trend for 2017 and 2018. All the top designers agree – mixing metals to create a unique and sophisticated space is here for the foreseeable future.

Here are some quick pro tips to make it work.

- DO mix metal tones. Warm metals like copper, brass, and gold do mix with the cool tones of chrome and silver, but pick one primary tone, and use the other sparingly to offset it.
- While you mix your metals, check your color palette. DO use warm color hues (reds, browns, and yellows) with warm metals as your primary, and cool colors (blues, violets, and greens) with the cooler metal tones. Bonus tip: In a neutral colored space, metals shine the most, adding color, texture, and raising the design temperature to just right.

- DO mix texture and finish too, and get creative on those pieces. Wall finishings, artwork, frames, and furniture legs can all be incorporated into the look, just to name a few.
- And after all that: DON'T go overboard. The consensus is to stick to two, a primary and an accent, and use it sparingly to balance the other design elements incorporated into your space.

Still love your copper most?
It's okay, we get it. We do too.

Take it beyond the kitchen with these simple, effective ways to decorate with copper.

ACCENTS ARE IN: With copper, a little goes a long way! Add a touch of glamour to a table scape with a copper vase, or brighten up place settings with copper flatware.

Carefully placed pieces add subtle gleam and glimmer without overpowering the room.

LIGHT IT UP:

Ready to go bigger? Focus all the attention on one statement lighting piece – whether it be a ceiling pendant, or strategically placed table lamp. Don't be afraid to be bold!

SHOW IT OFF:

Copper is practical and beautiful, adding warmth to any space. Store your copper kitchenware on open shelves, drawing attention to the beauty, form, and function of this classic, versatile metal. Maybe start with your handcrafted copper mugs.

Don't have them yet? Our pure copper, handcrafted mugs are available in a limited edition set of four, along with a sleek copper shot glass and handy recipe booklet to get you started.

Regardless of how your metal shines, once you've finished decorating your space to stay ahead of the latest trends, invite your friends to show it off and kick back with a classic, the Moscow Mule, served up in our vintage mugs with a modern verve to showcase your sense of style.

Happy Decorating!
With love and light,
